Net Interest Income

Net Interest Income (NII) continues to grow despite low interest rates; interest rate hike at the end of June not yet visible

Main Drivers:

- Negative influence of generally lower market interest rates was largely offset by higher volumes of client loans and deposits; 25 bps interest rate hike in late June had minimal impact (estimated impact for second half of 2004 CZK 100 m)
- Decline in interest expenses influenced by redemption of subordinated debt in December 2003 (positive impact to NII of approx. CZK 103 m)
- Non-interest bearing balances on anonymous passbooks (CZK 7.1 bn at the end of Jun 2004) favourably influenced NII by CZK 80 m
- NII from credit cards reached CZK 68 m

Group Profit & Loss Statement

General Administrative Expenses

General Administrative Expenses growing slightly faster than inflation

Main Drivers:

- Higher personnel expenses due to annual base salary increase at the beginning of 2004 (estimated net impact of CZK 101 m) and higher performance related bonuses and severance payments in connection with staff reduction (CZK 15.9 m)
- Staff reductions are on target for 2004
- Increase of other administrative expenses results mainly from changes in VAT legislation, effective as of the beginning of 2004, and slight increase of advertising and marketing expenditures

IFRS, Consolidated, CZK m	1H 2003	1H 2004	% Change
Personnel expenses	3,158	3,301	4.5

- Net investment and interest income slightly increased by 3.5%
