Note: The fees indicated in the List of Charges also apply to current accounts in Czech currency for individual clients.

For conversion transactions in different currencies, the Cash-Buy or No-C-Buy rate is used at the transaction input and the Cash-Sell and/or No-C-Sell rate is used at the transaction output for conversion purposes depending on the fact, whether the transaction involves currency (bank notes) or not. Any transaction where the currency on the transaction side differs from the account currency is deemed a conversion transaction. The fees applicable to foreign currency accounts are indicated in CZK and charged as a counter value in the particular foreign currency. The fees are converted based on the Czech National Bank exchange rate.

Apart from the fees for services specified in the List of Charges, also the actual expenses of Česká spořitelna, a.s. as well as other expenses (e.g. expenses of other banks and institutions) are charged. The fees are paid in cash during the provision of services or debited to the applicable account, however, such fees shall be settled not later than upon account closing and/or at the end of the year. Upon request, Česká spořitelna shall issue a receipt for fees paid in cash.

Additional fees charged for services provided by Česká spořitelna, a.s. are detailed in other parts of the List of Charges.

In exceptional cases, the bank may provide a discount from the specified fee.

This List of Charges shall become valid as of 27 January 2008 and any amendments hereto shall be published at the branches of Česká spořitelna, a.s.
