) It is charged only with import and domestic customer collections. Collections are deemed as overdue collections starting from the third business day which follows the regular collection due date. Collections payable at sight and collections containing a bill for acceptance are deemed as collections after the due date following the expiry of one calendar month from the date Česká spořitelna, a. s. notified the debtor on submitting documents for collection. The safekeeping of bills submitted to Česká spořitelna, a.s. for collection or for mediating acceptance and the safekeeping of bills domiciled at Česká spořitelna, a.s. is not subject to any fee.

For conversion transactions in different currencies, the No-C-Buy rate is used at the transaction input and the No-C-Sell rate is used at the transaction output for conversion purposes. The fees indicated in a percentage amount are calculated from the converted amount.

Any transaction where the currency on the transaction side differs from the account currency is deemed a conversion transaction.

The fees applicable to foreign currency accounts are indicated in CZK and charged as a counter value in the particular foreign currency. The fees are converted based on the Czech National Bank exchange rate.

Apart from the fees for services specified in the List of Charges, also the actual expenses of Česká spořitelna, a.s. as well as other expenses (e.g. expenses of other banks and institutions) are charged. The fees are debited to the particular account during the provision of services, and/or the fees may be deducted from the collection yield. Additional fees charged for services provided by Česká spořitelna, a.s. are detailed in other parts of the List of Charges.

In exceptional cases, the bank may provide a discount from the specified fee.

This List of Charges shall become valid as of 1 January 2007 and any amendments shall be published at the branches of Česká spořitelna, a.s.
